

Excuse Me I'm Trying To Please You

Directed by Vern Griffiths

'Fiona Paul
has written a fantastic, one woman, monologue-performing,
spoof-song singing masterpiece.
Pure pleasure'

LargeManchester.com

★★★★★

'Everyone found themselves dancing home...'

Buxton Fringe

Winner of the Forever Manchester Award

@FionaPaul1
www.fiona-paul.co.uk

Fiona wants to please you; she wants to take you to pleasure level 10;
and she'll go to practically any lengths to do it....

Kiss a duck,
Sing about cheese,
Make a small boy cry, Encourage you to walk your Jack Russell, She'll even brave the advances of Danny, enormous son of the one-toothed Rosemary.
Synchronise your pleasure levels, as monologues and songs explore the wonderful, weird nature of real people.

This show includes a free jaffa cake.

'Pleasure Level 10 had definitely been reached.
She uses her impeccable comedic timing, and her powerful beautiful voice to help us get up there'

LargeManchester.com

'If any of you get the chance to see Fiona Paul in action then I urge you to do so.'

Charlotte Mack

'Compelling'
Time Out
'Slickly and inventively performed.'

Three Weeks

'Gloriously silly'

The Guardian

ZOO Southside
Box Office:
0131 662 6892
www.zoofestival.co.uk

Cabaret Bar DAILY 3.20pm
3rd-27th August (no show 13th August)

ZOO
SOUTHSIDE

